

Jo Daviess County, IL

With about 25,000 residents, Jo Daviess County relies on tourism for a good portion of its jobs. The Galena Territory Resort is the largest employer in the county. It hosts several other large resorts and Galena is a major tourist destination with its antique dealers. The highest point in Illinois is also in the county, at Charles Mound, near the village of Scales Mound.

Jo Daviess County has a combined 9-1-1 Dispatch center that handles all Public Safety operations in the county. Some of the larger towns have alternate channels for local operations.
